Greetings Michigan,

The New Year is upon us as we begin to look toward the camping season. The state spring campout has a host and we are seeking a host for the state fall campout. The board is hopeful the most recent decisions made at the November delegate meeting will inspire chapters to host. The success of a state campout is not on one person's shoulders. After doing my very first ever campout I can tell you I was very pleased with the amount of friends who asked "what can I do to help?" I was most thankful to have them ask. This generosity is extended to everyone hosting a campout. All you have to do is ask and someone will help. That I guarantee. It is also a great way to meet new friends or learn the name of someone you have seen at other campouts.

Let me take this opportunity to welcome our new state directors John and Linda English.

At the November delegates meeting I learned we also have new assistant state directors as well. We welcome Pete and Samie-Jo Schaub and look forward to working with them also. They are dedicated to our organization and I have learned a lot from all of them. Their years of experience are truly an asset to us.

Let's hope this winter gets over soon and we can get on with that thing we call camping. I always enjoy the time spent talking at the campfire or at the coffee pot in hospitality. I hope everyone has a safe and healthy winter. If you are still north please drive safe. If you are south enjoy the weather and come home safely. Until we meet at the next campout I wish you well.

God Bless

Jim Duplanty

Dear MSA Chapters and Members at Large,

In March FCRV will begin offering electronic voting for the election of our national trustees. We have made this decision for several reasons:

- more convenient – no worries about mail forwarding or requesting absentee ballots
- more cost effective
- less chance of ballots being lost
- quick and accurate results

The FCRV national office is trying to gather e-mail addresses from our members so e-vote instructions can be forwarded in time to participate in the March election. If you have not already done so, please send an e-mail to fcrvnat@verizon.net confirming the e-mail address to send your e-ballot.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you.

State Director's Update...

The Michigan Field Staff enjoyed their annual Octoberfest the last weekend in October at the Best Western Birch Run. The facility was lovely and we would like to thank Hope Malecki for making the arrangements. We had a private room for the day Saturday and the field staff voted to return there next year. We would like to thank Jane Thornton for helping us with the fun activities...ask any field staff about the hats they wore and the team building competition! We would like to thank the field staff who attended and participated in the annual workshop and meeting and look forward to Octoberfest 2012. This annual weekend is open to all FCRV members who wish to attend. Please let us know if you are interested. The dates are October 26-28, 2012 with the meeting/workshop held on Saturday October 27. The workshop focused on team building and the field staff participated in two activities. We would like to thank everyone for being good sports and participating. We also talked about the importance of communication, collaboration, and trust incorporating listening which leads to successful leadership. We will continue reinforcing these skills as we work together.

We would like to welcome our newest field staff, Terry and Regina Jentzen and Ed and Donna Huryn. Both families will be supporting the Southeast District.

The Mid-State District has merged with the Mid-West District. Dave and Heidi Mull are the district directors.

The Macomb District has merged with the Southeast District. Doug Riley Jr. is the district director.

The 2012 Regional Campout will be held May 24-28, 2012 at the Walworth County Fairgrounds, 411 E. Court Street, Elkhorn, WI; close to the WI/IL state line. We hope you can attend.

According to the FCRV Field Staff Structure, field staff is required to sign an annual commitment. Field staff are appointed and released by the state director. State directors and assistant state directors are automatically field staff only while serving in these positions. National program directors are automatically field staff as long as they serve in their positions. Thanks to field staff for adhering to the annual commitment and we look forward to working with you.

There are openings for National Program Directors for the following programs: CAMP (aka SPC), Historian and National Insignia. If you are interested in serving as director of any of these programs, please let us know.

The Michigan Website has been updated and some changes have been made. Please visit our website at www.MIFCRV.org and let us know what you think.

In this issue of The Michigander, the MSA Board has launched a survey to help plan for FCRV in Michigan in the future. The survey is also posted on our website. Please take the time to respond to the survey and let us know your ideas and suggestions. Surveys must be completed and returned by February 3, 2012.

It is time to send us your 2012 camping schedule and officers. Your chapter president will be published in the April issue of The Michigander. We would also ask that you send us your chapter's membership list.

We are excited to announce the appointment of a Young Adult Program Director...Terry and Regina Jentzen and Mark and Melody Graves will be the directors. They will be planning programs at our state campouts for the young adults in our organization.

Sue Carlsen was appointed the DASAT (aka DAT) Director and has also agreed to keep our Michigan Campout Manual updated. We are excited that she and Chuck will remain active in Michigan.

We look forward to seeing you at the MSA meeting next month and also wish our snowbirds a safe return in the spring. Our 2012 camping season cannot come soon enough for us!

Happy New Year!

Correspondence from Sue Carlsen...

It's time to elect national trustees once again and my name will be on the ballot for the position of Recording/ Corresponding Officer. This is a new title combining the two secretary positions; thereby reducing the Board of Trustees by one member and increasing the work of the lucky candidate – me. Initially, as some of you may know, I did not intend to seek this nomination. Having been out of the workforce for six years, my transcription skills are not what they once were. Sandy Kendall, who has held the position of Recording Officer for ten years and done an outstanding job, will be a hard act to follow. In addition to taking minutes at meetings (the Trustees also hold several conference calls throughout the year) I will also be responsible for maintaining the manuals and sending correspondence when requested. But avoidance of work was not the underlying cause of my reluctance to commit to another two years as a Trustee. I had a lot of uncertainty regarding my ability to figure out the direction that FCRV needs to take in order to survive in a changing world. While we can all argue the causes and effects of declining membership, the Trustees are responsible for making whatever adjustments are necessary to keep our organization a viable entity in the marketplace. Because most of us joined NCHA/FCRV for social reasons, we may not always think about the cost of doing business. But, in order to provide the member services we offer, we must do business with others – campgrounds, insurance companies, vendors, to name a few. When these costs go up

My name is Emily and I am the daughter of Anne and Foster Kurburski. I am fourteen years old. I have been a part of FCRV my entire life. I live in Harbor Springs, where my hobbies include Scottish Dancing, basketball, running, and most of all, camping. I am also involved in Girl Scouts where I have earned my bronze and silver awards.

I recently flew to Houston, Texas for the 100th anniversary of Girl Scouting, being one of ten girls in Michigan to go. There I attended marketing classes, some of the teachers were from the Coca-Cola Company and many organizations that like to make a huge difference in today's world. In the evening there were guest speakers like Katie Curic and Robin Roberts. There was also lots of entertainment like Sara Bareilles. While we were there we stayed in the Magnolia Hotel, it was so nice. I also enjoyed seeing the world famous Harlem Globetrotters. I had such a blast while I was there.

I am super excited for national and can't wait to get to meet all those wonderful people that will be there. I would just like to say thanks for all the tremendous support I have gotten and I hope to see you all soon!

Hi Michigan,

Hi, my name is Shawn Crookedacre. I am your 2011-2012 Teen King. I am a Freshman at Grand Blanc High School. I have been very busy this fall playing Freshman Football.

Thank you Mid-West for inviting me to a great Halloween campout in Hudsonville, MI.

I attended the MSA meeting in November.

Invite me to your campouts. I will try to make as many as possible.

I hope you all had a good holiday. See you in 2012.

while our revenue goes down, how do we adjust? The Trustees that I currently serve with bring a broad range of expertise to the table. And even though I don't always agree with their point of view, I respect their capacity to make the right decision. I know for a fact that each one of us also shares their perspective as a chapter member or that of a state/provincial association to bear in the choices we make. As I embark on my second term at the national level, I ask for your continued support. I welcome your ideas, questions, and criticisms and will do my best to reply. But please keep in mind that regardless of how qualified or well-meaning the seven of us Trustees may be, our marketing efforts alone will not increase membership. If FCRV is to attract and keep new members, our future is ultimately in your hands. As I have had to reconsider my attitudes, priorities, and obligations as a Trustee, I encourage each of you to make a commitment to keep your chapter alive by inviting others to join in the fun and friendship we all enjoy when we're together. In addition, I ask you to think about volunteering for one of the director positions listed on page 4 of this newsletter. Do you have some expertise that you are willing to share? I believe you do.
